

Left:

William Balmer's photo of German bomber that surprised 39 RCCE airfield near end of war by crash landing on the field, rather than bombing it, as usually happened when they appeared.
(probably early 1945 near Soltou ?)

Right:

These were the only two German aircrew from the bomber (above). They don't appear disappointed to have found themselves in 'enemy' hands .
