

Left:
Intersection in Luneburg, Germany as William saw it in April 1945.
The sign points right towards Lubeck, (approximately 30 km away), the site of the catastrophic sinking of 3 POW ships by the RAF just a week earlier that killed over 7000 allied POW's.

Right:
One of William Balmer's fellow airmen shows him the 'pointy' end of the Sten-Gun !

